PUBLIC COMPETITION FOR ADMISSION TO THE INTERUNIVERSITY DOCTORAL RESEARCH PROGRAMME IN ECONOMICS. ACADEMIC YEAR 2022/2023.

THE RECTOR

- Having regard to Italian Ministerial Decree No. 270, dated 22 October 2004, entitled “Amendments to Regulation No. 509 containing rules governing the educational autonomy of Universities, passed by a Decree of the Ministry for Universities and Scientific and Technological Research on 3 November 1999”;
- Having regard to Article 4 of Italian Law No. 210, dated 3 July 1998, as amended by art. 19, paragraph 1, of Italian Law No. 240 dated 30 December 2010;
- Having regard to Italian Regional Law No. 33, dated 13 December 2004, entitled “Rules governing Regional measures to ensure the right to study at university”, which makes provisions for services in favour of students enrolled in doctoral programmes;
- Having regard to Italian Ministerial Decree No. 226 dated 14 December 2021, "Regulation containing the accreditation methods of the locations and doctoral programmes and the criteria for the institution of doctoral programmes by accredited bodies";
- Having regard to the agreement between the Universities of Milan and Pavia entered into on 18 November 2020 concerning the activation and operation of the doctoral research programme in Economics - PhD in Economics, with administrative centre based at the University of Milan;
- Having regard to Ministerial decree protocol No. 929 of 15 October 2019, whereby the Ministry of Education, Universities and Research (MIUR), pursuant to Ministerial Decree 45/2013, grants five-year accreditation to the doctoral research programmes proposed by the University of Milan, subject to compliance with the prescribed requirements;
- Considering that the University intends to institute a new cycle of doctoral programmes for academic year 2022/2023;
- Having regard to the note of Ministry of University and Research (MUR) of 26 April 2022;
- Having regard to the decisions of the Academic Senate and of the Board of Directors in the sessions of 12 and 28 April 2022, concerning the institution of the 38th doctoral cycle;

HEREBY DECREES
Art. 1 - Institution

The inter-university doctoral research programme in Economics is activated at the universities of Milan and Pavia for the 2022/2023 academic year (38th cycle - as of 3 October 2022), subject to accreditation by MUR, and ongoing compliance with accreditation requirements.

A public competition for admission to the aforementioned doctoral programme will be held at the University of Milan; selection will be based on qualifications and exams. The table annexed to this decree, which is an integral part thereof, contains a brief description of the programme, as well as the examination window and a reference to the University’s website. The latter provides information on the research topics identified by the academic board, in line with the course objectives and the relevant research and advanced training programme, that will be offered to candidates admitted to the doctoral programme. The deadlines and methods for candidates to choose research topics are set out in art. 21 of the University Regulations on doctoral programmes at the University of Milan (administrative centre).

The number of scholarships may be increased should external funding become available before the start date of the PhD cycle.

Foreign candidates who are in receipt of scholarships issued by their country of origin may be admitted to the doctoral programme over and above the prescribed number, provided that they have passed the admission exams set out in this decree.

Art. 2 - Admission requirements

Candidates holding a second cycle degree (Laurea magistrale), an equivalent qualification, or a qualification equivalent to the level of studies (Master’s Degree) awarded by a foreign university, may apply to take part in the competition for admission to the doctoral research programme, as per the article above.

The suitability of the foreign academic qualification in terms of content is evaluated by the Examining Committee set up for admission to the doctoral programme, in compliance with the regulations in force in Italy and in the country in which the academic qualification was issued, and with the international treaties or agreements on the recognition of qualifications for the purpose of continuing studies.

Those without a second-cycle degree may also apply. Candidates without a Master's degree admitted to the PhD programme must obtain the required qualification by the enrolment date.
Art. 3 - Application for admission

Applications for admission must be submitted by no later than 2pm on 18 July 2022, following the procedures described below:

1. Register online on the University portal. This operation is not required of those already registered on the portal or in possession of University login credentials (final year students or those who graduated from the University of Milan less than a year ago);
2. Login and submit an application for admission to the Doctoral programme by accessing Admission services -Servizio di ammissione dottorati di ricerca;
3. Pay the non-refundable fee of €50 covering selection costs, within the deadline for admissions.

The following documents (no larger than 10 MB) must be uploaded (as pdf, .rtf or .jpg files) to complete the online admissions procedure:

A. Diploma Supplement or Bachelor's/Master's diploma (or equivalent qualification obtained in Italy or abroad), with transcript of records. Upcoming graduates are required to submit a certificate of enrolment in lieu of the diploma. The documents must be in Italian, English, French, German or Spanish. This document is not required of graduates/upcoming graduates of the University of Milan since it will be acquired internally;
B. CV describing any professional experience and other qualifications held by the applicant;
C. Research project (using Form 1 attached hereto);
D. Copy of passport (foreign applicants only);
E. List of publications (if any);
F. Annex A.

Non-EU candidates residing abroad are also required to submit an online application for pre-enrolment through Universitaly, in order to obtain a student visa.

The online application cannot be modified or supplemented with further documentation once it has been confirmed.

Self-certification is accepted in the cases provided for and pursuant to current legislation.

Please note that the failure to provide even just one of the documents (from A to C) above, will result in the candidate being excluded from the competition.

Qualifications and scientific publications may be submitted in either Italian or English.

In addition to the above listed documentation, at the request of the Teaching Committee, as specified in the table, applicants must ask qualified referees who have been involved in their training to provide one letter of reference drafted according to Form 2 attached hereto, which the referees must email directly (as a .pdf file) to the address indicated in the doctoral programme.
description by the competition deadline. The reference letters will be looked at in conjunction with the candidate’s CV but will not be awarded any points.

Art. 4 - Candidates with disabilities

In order to ensure equal treatment of candidates, those holding a certificate of invalidity and/or of disability pursuant to Law 104/1992 may apply for accommodations to the COSP Disability Office (ausili.ammissioni@unimi.it) attaching the certificate issued by the competent public health office. Candidates holding outdated certificates are required to apply for an updated certificate, to be submitted after enrolment for the purposes of using disability accommodations as offered by the study programme.

Art. 5 - Candidates with SLD

In order to ensure equal treatment of candidates, those holding a Specific Learning Disorder (SLD) certificate issued by the National Health Service, a private affiliated centre, or a private specialist (with a compliance certificate from the competent health authority), pursuant to Law 170/2010, may apply for accommodations to the COSP SLD Office (ausili.ammissioni@unimi.it) attaching the certificate. If the SLD was diagnosed in childhood, and the certificate is over three years old, students should apply for an updated certificate, to be submitted after enrolment for the purposes of using SLD accommodations as offered by the study programme.

Art. 6 - Admission exam

Admission to the doctoral programme is through a public selection procedure involving the evaluation of qualifications and tests for the comparative assessment of candidates. An Examining Committee set up and appointed in compliance with current regulations will carry out the procedure.

The selection procedure aims to assess the applicant’s training, capabilities and aptitude for scientific research, as well as his/her personal motivations. It involves assessment of the CV and a research project, possibly based on his/her second cycle degree dissertation, as well as an online interview. The research project, which must be described according to a standard format (Form 1 attached hereto), is relevant for the sole purposes of selection and does not constitute any obligation regarding the subsequent choice of doctoral thesis in the event that the candidate is admitted.

The candidate’s CV and research project will be evaluated prior to the interview, and candidates will be able to see the result of the evaluation on the University portal.

Evaluation of the CV will take into account the candidate’s entire university career, any publications, any professional experience and other qualifications held. The Examining Committee can give a maximum of 20 points for the CV, taking into consideration the statistical distribution of the exam marks for their respective study course, the conditions and the amount of time taken by the candidate to obtain their qualifications.

A maximum of 10 points can be awarded for the research project.

Candidates who obtain a score of at least 50% of the maximum points obtainable for the CV and the research project can be called for interview.

The interview will take place in an open session, according to the schedule posted to the University website. It is aimed at ascertaining the candidate's knowledge of topics relating to the educational and scientific fields of the doctoral programme. The interview stage includes a seminar-style presentation of the applicant's proposed research project, followed by a general discussion aimed at verifying their skills, scientific knowledge and personal motivations. A maximum of 70 points can be awarded for the interview.

The interview will be held in English.

In order to sit the examinations, applicants must show one of the following forms of identification:

a) Identity card;

b) Passport;

c) Italian driving license.

The outcome of the examination will be communicated by the Committee at the end of the interview.

At the end of the examination, the Committee compiles a general merit ranking based on the sum of the scores obtained by the applicants from the evaluation of their CV, the research project and the interview.

The doctoral programme admission exam is passed if the candidate obtains the minimum score of at least 70/100.

The ranking is published online on the page Graduatorie ammissioni post laurea Postgraduate admission rankings page in the days following the examinations.

It is incumbent on the Committee to complete procedures no later than 4 August 2022.

Art. 7 - Admission to doctoral programme

Applicants are admitted to the programme in accordance with the ranking order until the number of places available has been filled. Where applicants achieve the same score, preference will be given to younger applicants, with the exception of the right of priority criterion for the awarding of PhD grants set forth in art. 9 of this call for applications. The rankings of eligible applicants will be published online, on the days following the interviews, on the University website at Graduatorie ammissioni post laurea Postgraduate admission rankings page.

The ranking published on the University website constitutes notification to the interested parties since they will not receive written communication.
Applicants admitted to the course will lose their entitlement if they fail to enrol within the specified deadlines. Should this occur, their place shall be given to the next applicant in the ranking list. This also applies if an admitted applicant withdraws within three months of the start of the programme. If the withdrawing student has already received any monthly scholarship payment, he/she is required to return it. The Doctoral Students Administration Office (Segreteria Dottorati) will email takeover applicants directly with the relevant instructions and the deadlines for enrolment.

Candidates admitted to the programme will be disqualified if they fail to prove English language proficiency (or other language skills as set forth herein), at least at level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Therefore, at the time of enrolment (as per art. 8 below), applicants must submit a language certificate recognized by the University of Milan to prove they meet the language proficiency requirement. For the purposes of admission, the language certificate must have been earned no more than three years prior to submission (no more than two years for the TOEFL certificate) and must certify all four Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking skills.

The following language certificates are recognized by the University:

CAMBRIDGE ASSESSMENT

B2 level under the CEFR: those who fail to prove that they meet the language requirement upon enrolment shall be disqualified from admission and excluded from PhD programme. More specifically, disqualification and exclusion shall be mandatory in the following cases:

(i) Failure to submit any of the above language certificate recognized by the University (or late submission with respect to the deadline set out in the call for applications). No other language certificates will be accepted;
(ii) Failure to submit a language certificate, as per point (i), that lists all the skills required, namely Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking skills;
(iii) Certificates earned more than three years prior to submission (or more than two years for TOEFL).

The following candidates are not required to present a certificate:
− those who have obtained, or will obtain, by the enrolment date, a second cycle degree (where English is the specialist subject) in one of the following areas: LM-37 Modern European and American Languages and Literature, LM-38 Modern Languages for International Communication and Cooperation, LM-39 Linguistics, LM-94 Specialised Translation and Interpreting or equivalent second cycle degree;
− those who have obtained, or will obtain, by the enrolment date, a second cycle degree taught entirely in English;
− those who, as part of their previous study programme, have already obtained, or will obtain by the enrolment deadline, a B2 level English language statement issued by the University Language Centre (SLAM).

The aforementioned waivers are mandatory.

Art. 8 - Enrolment

Enrolment in the doctoral research programme is open from 26 September 2022 to 2pm 30 September 2022 using the SIFA enrolment service and following the procedures published on the University website.

Candidates are admitted conditionally and may be excluded from the programme if they do not meet the requirements.

Candidates holding a qualification obtained abroad are required to upload the following documents when completing the online enrolment process:

− Original diploma (Master of Science or equivalent) with a translation into Italian, French, English, German or Spanish;
− Italian tax ID code.
To complete enrolment, the following documents must be sent to the International Students Office, through the Informastudenti service, (https://www.unimi.it/en/study/student-services/welcome-desk-informastudenti) by 2 November:

- Statement of Validity (Dichiarazione di Valore in Loco) issued by the Italian Embassy, or Diploma Supplement, or certificate of comparability issued by CIMEA, or other declaration of validity issued by ENIC_NARIC centres;
- Student visa (only for non-EU citizens residing abroad);
- Valid residence permit (only for non-EU citizens).

Verification of the validity of foreign qualifications is made on submission of the official documents. Until then, candidates are admitted to the programme conditionally, and may drop off the ranking if they are found not to meet the requirements.

Art. 9 - Scholarships

The scholarships awarded by the University of Milan amount to € 16,350.00 gross, those awarded by the University of Pavia amount to € 15,343.28 gross. The beneficiaries will receive the scholarship amount directly from the University that made it available.

The amount of the scholarship is exempt from IRPEF income tax under art. 4 of Italian Law No. 476 of 13 August 1984 and, in terms of social security, is subject to the regulations set forth in article 2, paragraph 26 et seq., of Italian Law No. 335 of 8 August 1995 as amended.

The regional tax for the right to study and an expenses charge will be automatically deducted from the scholarship.

Scholarships are assigned on the basis of the rules set out in the Agreement for the activation and operation of the Doctoral Research Programme in Economics, art. 6, “The Teaching Committee determines to which research group each candidate belongs, and will thereafter award scholarships, on the basis of the research topic selected by the doctoral student (among those proposed by the Committee), using the admission ranking as the criterion for satisfying student preferences, until all the scholarships at the specified location are assigned. Each student must complete research in the selected field at the proponent University”.

In the case of equal merit, scholarships are assigned on the basis of candidates' economic situation, as certified by the Indicator of Equivalent Financial Situation (ISEE).

Scholarships have a yearly duration and can be renewed on condition that the doctoral student has been accepted by the Teaching board for the following year, after it is ascertained that he/she has correctly and successfully completed the programme of activities in the previous year.

Starting from the first year, in addition to the scholarship and depending on the University's budgeted financial resources, each doctoral student is given an amount for research in Italy and abroad suited to the type of programme and in any case not less than 10% of the amount of the scholarship itself.
Art. 10 - Obligations of Doctoral Students

The doctoral research programmes entails 1,500 hours of training-education and research activities per year. The rights and obligations of doctoral students are regulated by art. 22 of the Regulations of the University of Milan concerning doctoral research programmes (administrative centre).

Art. 11 - Awarding of qualification

The qualification of Doctor of Philosophy, abbreviated to Dott. Ric. or Ph.D., is awarded jointly by the Rectors of the Universities partnered in compliance with Ministerial Decree no. 226 dated 14 December 2021.

Art. 12 - Processing of personal data

Pursuant to Legislative Decree no. 196 of 30 June 2003, as amended by Legislative Decree no. 101 of 10 August 2018, as well as EU Regulation no. 679/2016 (General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR), the University undertakes to respect the confidential nature of the information provided by applicants. All data provided will be processed solely for purposes related and instrumental to the competition and to manage the applicant’s relationship with the University, where necessary, in compliance with current laws.

Art. 13 - Relevant regulations

Any items for which no specific provision has been made in this call for applications shall be regulated in accordance with legislation and regulations governing doctoral research programmes.

Art. 14 - Procedure Manager

Pursuant to law No. 241 of 7 August 1990 the manager of the procedure related to this announcement is Ms. Monica Delù (Head of Postgraduate Admissions and Student Public Relations Office).

THE RECTOR
(Elio Franzini)
Doctoral programme in Economics

Learning Objectives
The PhD programme in Economics aims to train PhDs who, in addition to having high-level skills in all the fundamental aspects (methodological, theoretical, analytical) of economic sciences, are able to develop original studies, on the frontier of scientific research, in their specific field of study and specialization. The PhD programme in Economics includes mandatory advanced courses to provide students with methodological and specialist skills that are not honed in previous levels of studies. It covers the following subject areas: Microeconomics and Macroeconomics, Theoretical and Applied Econometrics; Advanced Applications of Statistics and Mathematics for Economics. Other seminars and tutorials focus on more specific fields such as Industrial Economics, International Economics, Labour Economics, Public Economics, Environmental and Energy Economics. Each PhD candidate will choose a research topic in the subject areas represented on the Academic Board and write a dissertation consisting of original papers to be published in peer-reviewed, world-class scientific journals. The PhD programme aims to train students to navigate the international Economics research arena and to interact with the global scientific community.

The doctoral programme will be in English.
