HEREBY DECREES AS FOLLOWS:

Art. 1 - Institution

Subject to accreditation by the Ministry of University and Research (MUR), in compliance with the laws in force, the University of Milan (administrative headquarters), Fondazione “Scuola Superiore Europea di Medicina Molecolare” (SEMM – European School of Molecular Medicine), the University of Naples “Federico II”, the University of Bari, the University of Turin, the University of Trento, the Catholic University of the Sacred Heart and Humanitas University of Milan hereby institute a highly innovative doctoral programme of national interest called “PhD in Systems Medicine” for the academic year 2024/2025 (40th cycle – starting on 1 November 2024).

The recent progresses made in the fields of genetics and genomic sciences have triggered a big change, which is leading classical medicine to transform itself into the so-called Precision Medicine, based on the acquisition and integration of enormous quantities of quantitative molecular data and their exploitation for a personalised definition of the disease and of its targeted therapy. Precision Medicine has changed the way in which the cellular and molecular mechanisms of the disease are investigated. It uses technological platforms to produce a large amount of information, which allows to highlight and quantify the heterogeneous nature of diseases and the phenotypic variability associated with individuals. Precision Medicine will totally change the approach to treatment not only for therapy, but also for diagnosis and prevention. Therefore, the transition to Precision Medicine requires professionals with new skills and multi-disciplinary training.

The PhD in Systems Medicine aims to provide doctors and scientists with interdisciplinary theoretical and technological training in biomedical sciences to be applied to the problems of precision medicine, with the aim of training professionals capable of dealing with technological strategies and highly complex therapeutics with a multidisciplinary approach.

The official language of the PhD in Systems Medicine is English.

each applicant for their qualifications and exams, in compliance with the above-mentioned criteria.

The minimum pass score is 70/100.

Personal interviews with faculty members will follow the admission examination. These interviews aim at presenting the research centres and their research projects and are not scored for the purposes of admission.

Art. 8 - Admission Committee

The Admission Committee is appointed by the Rector of the University of Milan, upon proposal of the Faculty of Instructors, by means of a decree issued in accordance with the applicable regulations.

The Committee must conclude its work by 30 July 2024.

Art. 9 - Admission to the programme

After the examination, the Admission Committee will draw up the ranking list according to the scores obtained by each applicant. The ranking list will then be published on the SEMM website (<https://www.semm.it/>).

Applicants are admitted to the programme according to their position in the ranking list, until all the available places have been filled. Where applicants achieve the same score, preference will be given to the younger applicant, with the exception of the priority criterion for doctoral scholarships set forth in art. 11 of this call for applications. Scholarships are awarded based on the ranking order.

Admitted applicants who do not enrol by the deadline lose their right to enrol in the programme. Should any admitted applicant withdraw from the programme, applicants ranked as eligible but not admitted in the first instance may be invited to enrol in their stead, but no later than three months after the start of the programme. If the withdrawing student has already received any monthly scholarship payments, he/she is required to return them.

Art. 10 - Application for enrolment

Admitted applicants must apply for enrolment in the PhD programme within 5 days of publication of the ranking list, by filling out the ad-hoc form prepared by the University of Milan.

Applicants holding a foreign degree are required upload the following documents when completing the enrolment process:

In the event of applicants ranked equally, scholarships are awarded by assessing the applicant's economic situation according to the ISEE (Equivalent Economic Situation Indicator).

Scholarships have a yearly duration and are renewed if the Faculty of Instructors promotes the student to the following year, after ascertaining that he/she has correctly and successfully completed the programme of activities in the previous year.

Art. 12 - Tuition and fees

Those enrolled in doctoral programmes must pay the annual regional tax for the Education Incentive Programme in the amount of €140.00, plus a €16.00 stamp duty and a €15.50 insurance premium.

Students with a disability percentage at or above 66% and/or a recognised handicap pursuant to Law no. 104/92 will have the regional tax waived, provided that they submit an application for exemption; these students are only required to pay the €16.00 stamp duty.

Enrolment fees are non-refundable, even if a student withdraws from the doctoral programme.

Art. 13 - Obligations of doctoral students

The rights and obligations of doctoral students are regulated by articles 26 and 27 of the University Regulation for PhD Programmes and Students. Please bear in mind the following:

- Doctoral research programmes entail 1,500 hours of training-education and research activities per year. A full-time commitment is required of each student for the whole duration of the programme.
- In order to obtain their PhD, doctoral students are required to demonstrate English proficiency at level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

To meet the language proficiency requirement, doctoral students must submit an English certificate from one of the certifying bodies recognised by the University (<https://www.unimi.it/en/study/language-proficiency/placement-tests-and-english-courses/accepted-language-certificates>), at B2 level or above, by the end of the first programme year.

An exemption from submission of a language certificate is granted only to:

- those who, by the starting date of the PhD programme, have earned a Master's degree featuring an English-language specialisation in one of the following Master's degree classes: LM-37 Modern American and European languages and literature, LM-38 Modern languages for communication and international cooperation, LM-39 Linguistics, LM-94 Interpreting and specialised translating, or equivalent Master's degree;

- those who, by the date of their enrolment, have earned a Master's degree in a programme taught entirely in English;
- those who, during their prior study programme, have earned a B2 English language statement issued by SLAM - University of Milan Language Centre.

No other exemptions will be granted.

PhD students are required to regularly participate in the courses contemplated by the chosen curriculum and to be fully committed to the programme, with regard to both individual and guided study and to their assigned research activities, as requested by the Faculty.

Information on the nature and duration of the courses of each curriculum can be found on the website www.semm.it.

With a view to the organisation of annual assessments, PhD students will be asked to submit a written report about their research activities, including findings and future prospects for the project. The report must be submitted by the deadline established by the Faculty of Instructors.

Art. 14 - Civil servants

Pursuant to art. 12, paragraph 5, of Ministerial Decree 226/21, civil servants admitted to a doctoral programme may be granted a leave as contemplated by the applicable collective agreement, or, for those employed under public law, an extraordinary leave for study purposes, for the standard duration of the programme – provided that such leave does not conflict with the needs of the employing administration, as per art. 2 of Law no. 476 dated 13 August 1984 – but only if this is the first time that they enrol in a doctoral programme, independently of the programme subject area; the leave may be paid or unpaid, subject to the civil servant's right to explicitly forego the scholarship. This does not affect their right to receive a budget for research activities in Italy and abroad, as per art. 9, paragraph 4, of Ministerial Decree 226/21.

Art. 15 - Awarding of the degree

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy, abbreviated to “Dott.
