UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO

Extension of the enrolment deadline for undergraduate programmes

A.Y. 2026/2027

With regard to the academic year 2026/2027, the University has extended the enrolment deadline for the undergraduate degree programmes listed in the table below.

If you have already taken the required TOLC test, you can enrol via the online enrolment service by the new deadline indicated in the table, even if you had not applied for admission during the application window.

If you still have to take the TOLC test, please note that you must take it at least 48 hours before the new enrolment deadline. The type of TOLC test required for admission is indicated in the table below, as well as in the call for applications of each degree programme.

The test can be taken remotely (TOLC@HOME) or on campus (TOLC@UNI) at any of the available universities.

For limited-enrolment degree programmes, enrolment will be possible until all places available have been filled.

This is without prejudice to all other provisions contained in the call for applications for each degree programme.

Detailed instructions are available on the webpage Internal transfer – Bachelor's and single-cycle degree programmes. First-year students who matriculated in the A.Y. 2026/2027 cannot apply for internal transfer; instead, they must use the "Change programme" service reserved for new students.
