CHARACTERISTICS OF DEGREE PROGRAMME

General and specific learning objectives

The post-graduate degree course in Languages and Cultures for International Communication and Co-operation aims to provide specialized training for language mediators and to hone their language skills and cultural expertise though the wide range of language and culture courses offered. Students will also develop carefully selected skills in the fields of law, economics, sociology, psychology and anthropology, all essential to develop highly qualified professionals in the sphere of Intercultural communication and international cooperation.

Expected learning outcomes

Graduates of this course are expected to develop advanced language and comprehension skills in at least two contemporary European or non-European languages and cultures, together with specific professional expertise related to specialized translation and liaison interpreting, backed up by a thorough grounding in theory. The course equips students with the advanced and in-depth knowledge needed for informed analysis of the contemporary world and for understanding the differences between various modern social systems and migratory trends. Students will examine in some depth the microeconomic factors underlying consumer and company behaviour, as well as the macro-economic forces involved in issues related to development and globalization. The relationship between literature/culture and the media system will be addressed in detail. Students will also be introduced to the legal principles governing international trade, the defence of human rights and the working of international organizations, and will acquire advanced understanding of the psychology of intercultural relations and of cultural and linguistic geography. This skill set will be developed through specialized courses held in the language studied, dedicated workshops, and language lessons with an emphasis on the specialized languages relevant to the students? programme. Students will be equipped with a high level of professionalism that will enable them to interact directly with national and international bodies and organizations to facilitate processes of cultural, linguistic, economic, and social integration, and to act effectively in social or institutional situations in a multilingual and multicultural context.

Professional profile and employment opportunities

In an international perspective, thanks to the advanced skills and knowledge acquired, will graduates will be well-placed to find positions, and fill high responsibility posts, within international institutions and bodies, in both the public and corporate spheres. Opportunities also exist in the directorates of international bodies and in international cooperation and development organisations. Their advanced and highly specific skill set means they are ideally placed to work with bodies and organizations directly involved in the processes of cultural, linguistic, economic and social integration, where it is crucial to understand the need to protect immigrants? languages and other core issues of integration, especially in the light of European Union language policies. Graduates will also find places in teaching. This degree course trains graduates to understand the issues related to the dynamics of intercultural and interethnic relations in such sectors as public and private companies, public institutions, cultural organisations, environmental agencies, tourist boards, publishing and journalism. To sum up, graduates will acquire the ability to apply their expertise in communication and information in contexts in which it essential to have a thorough grounding in the multicultural issues involved in the processes affecting contemporary societies, particularly at an international level.

Initial knowledge required

Applicant to the Master's degree programme in Languages and Cultures for International Communication and Cooperation, students must meet the following requirements:

a) have earned 147 credits (CFU), excluding any 'off-plan' credits, by the application deadline;

- b) meet curricular requirements as set out below by 31 December 2022;
- c) for EU citizens or residents, pass an Italian language proficiency test;

d) obtain their Bachelor's degree no later than 31 December 2022.

Minimum requirements a) for students with class L-12 degrees, applicants to the curriculum "Intercultural communication and integration for institutional and corporate organisations" must have earned at least 60 CFU as follows:

- 18 CFU (= 2 years) for one language;

- 18 CFU (= 2 years) for another language;

- 18 CFU (= 2 years) for the two corresponding literatures and cultures;

- 6 CFU in an academic field (SSD) included in the class L-12 table.

applicants to the curriculum "Italian as L2 for intercultural communication and integration" must have earned at least 72 CFU as follows:

- 18 CFU (= 2 years) for a foreign language + 18 CFU (= 2 years) for the corresponding literature and culture;

- 18 CFU (= 2 years) in Italian + 12 CFU in the corresponding literature and culture;

- 6 CFU in an academic field (SSD) included in the class L-12 table.

b) for students from classes other than L-12,

applicants to the curriculum "Intercultural communication and integration for institutional and corporate organisations" must have earned at least 90 CFU as follows:

- 18 CFU (= 2 years) for one language;

- 18 CFU (= 2 years) for another language;

- 18 + 18 CFU (= 4 years) for the two corresponding literatures and cultures;

- 18 CFU in one or more academic fields (SSD) included in the class L-12 table.

applicants to the curriculum "Italian as L2 for intercultural communication and integration" must have earned at least 90 CFU as follows:

- 18 CFU (= 2 years) for a foreign language + 18 CFU (= 2 years) for the corresponding literature and culture;

- 18 CFU (= 2 years) in Italian + 18 CFU (= 2 years) in the corresponding literature and culture;

- 18 CFU in one or more academic fields (SSD) included in the class L-12 table.

The class L-12 table is available on the degree programme website (https://lin.cdl.unimi.it/it/iscriversi).

For the 2023-2024 academic year, the following languages are available: Arabic, Chinese, French, Japanese, Hindi, English, Italian (for non-Italian native speakers only), Russian, Spanish, German.

Skills assessment

Non-EU candidates residing abroad and applying for a student visa are waived from the test requirement and will be assessed based on their qualifications only.

On the other hand, EU citizens or residents must prove sufficient language skills for successfully completing advanced courses as part of this Master's degree programme. To this end, they will be required to take a test in each of their two curricular languages.

Non-Italian mother tongue EU citizens or residents applying for the Italian as L2 curriculum must choose, in addition to Italian, a second language for which they meet curricular requirements and take the test in both languages.

Please note that the language must be chosen from those studied in the previous programme.

Further practical information on the admission test is provided below in the admissions section. On the degree programme website (How to enrol section), you will find useful information for a preliminary self-assessment of admission requirements, including specific language skills and tests.

Admission procedures

For admission and enrolment opening and closing dates, see the call for applications on the programme website.

Applicants must meet the requirements specified in the admission requirements section above. Undergraduate applicants, from this or other universities, must graduate by 31 December 2022.

The online application must attach the candidate's qualification, as well as the list of exams taken and to be taken. For upcoming graduates and graduates from this university, such documents will be obtained internally. When completing the application, candidates must indicate the two languages in which they intend to take the test. This choice cannot be changed later.

International candidates may produce the documents in English, French, Spanish, German. Documents in other languages must be translated into Italian.

For candidates meeting qualification requirements, curricular requirements will be assessed by a special commission appointed by the Academic Board. The commission will meet on a regular basis in order to provide timely feedback, especially regarding any curricular gaps that may affect admission, in order to allow candidates to fill them in time.

Only the qualifications and self-certifications submitted through the standard admission procedure will be evaluated. On the degree programme website (https://lin.cdl.unimi.it/it/iscriversi), you will find useful information for a preliminary self-assessment of requirements.

NOTE: Candidates who pass the requirements assessment are eligible to take the test. Candidates who fail the test will not be admitted into the programme, even if they meet curricular requirements.

Test date

The test will take place on 12 September 2023 at the University of Milan. Place and time will be posted to the programme website.

Candidates who, in the commission's opinion, meet all requirements must take the language test on 12 September 2023 (another session may be scheduled on the next day, depending on the number of candidates). Please check the call for applications and the degree programme website for test delivery modes.

For more info on specific language skills requirements and tests, please refer to the study programme website (https://lin.cdl.unimi.it/it/iscriversi).

Test results

The results of the test will be posted to the programme website (https://lin.cdl.unimi.it/it/iscriversi) by 19 September 2023.

Transfers and second degrees

All students who intend to apply for transfer must meet the curricular admission requirements and take the test, including candidates from class LM-38. The same requirements apply to students already holding a Master's degree who intend to obtain a second degree. For transfer and second-degree application procedures, please refer to the Student Registrar.

Compulsory attendance

Attendance is strongly recommended.

Internship criteria

Students are required to undertake an internship at a company, educational institution, publishing house or another organization in Italy or abroad requiring advanced language and cultural skills.

Degree programme final exams

Upcoming graduates must pass a final exam. For candidates to be admitted to the final exam, they must have earned 96 credits.

The final exam, awarding 24 credits, consists in the presentation and discussion of an original written paper, approximately 150 pages long, on a topic relating to one of the two curricular languages or cultures, or to another curricular subject, provided that they studied this subject over the two-year period earning at least 6 credits, and that the topic is consistent with the chosen curriculum.

The Master's degree thesis can be written and defended in a foreign language. Students enrolled in the Italian as L2 curriculum will be required to take the final exam in Italian.

EXPERIENCE OF STUDY ABROAD AS PART OF THE TRAINING PROGRAM

The University of Milan supports international mobility by providing its students with the opportunity to spend study and internship periods abroad. It is a unique chance to enrich your educational path in a new exciting environment.

The agreements entered into by the University with over 300 universities from the 27 EU member countries under the European Erasmus+ programme allow regularly enrolled students to carry out part of their studies at one of the partner universities or to undertake internships at companies, training and research centres and other organizations.

Similar international mobility opportunities are provided outside Europe, through agreements with a number of prestigious institutions.

Study and internships abroad

Within the framework of the Erasmus programme, 58 exchange agreements are in place, covering 19 countries: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Estonia, France, Germany, Hungary, Ireland, Latvia, Malta, Norway, the Netherlands, Portugal, Poland, Rumania, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom, plus Switzerland, which participates in the Erasmus + programme as a partner country. Additionally, Erasmus traineeship agreements have also been signed with companies and institutions in some of the above-mentioned countries.

Additionally, a number of exchange agreements are in place with partner universities in non-European countries. Under these agreements, students have the opportunity to attend classes and take exams at partner institutions. Such activities and exam results may be validated in full or in part, with the corresponding credits concurring to fulfil the requirements for the attainment of the degree. Courses are typically offered in the areas of languages and the humanities, and are available in the following partner institutions:

- ARGENTINA: Universidad Nacional de Villa María (Córdoba); Universidad Nacional de La Plata (La Plata)

- CHINA: Liaoning Normal University
- COLOMBIA: Pontificia Universidad Javeriana (Bogotá)
- CUBA: Universidad de Oriente (Santiago de Cuba)
- INDIA: Manipal (Karnataka)

- JAPAN: Doshisha University (Kyoto), Meiji University (Tokyo), Waseda University (Tokyo), Kyoto University of Foreign Studies, Ibaraki Christian University, Osaka University

- MEXICO: Universidad de Guadalajara (Guadalajara), Universidad del Claustro de Sor Juana (Città del Messico), UNAM - Universidad Autonoma de Mexico

- RUSSIAN FEDERATION: LUNN – Linguistic University (Nižnij Novgorod), Novosibirsk Pedagogical State University (Novosibirsk), Istituto Puškin (Mosca), RGGU (RSUH) Russian Universities for the Humanities (Mosca), MGPU Moscow Pedagogical University (Mosca), HSE High School of Economics (Mosca)

Besides the Erasmus exchange agreements, the Course also has one double degree program in place whereby participating students earn degrees from both institutions:

Joint degree with the MA programme in "Russia and Europe: linguistic and cultural interaction" offered by the Russian State University for the Humanities (RSUH) in Moscow. UNIMI students accepted in the programme spend the second year of their course at RSUH, while Russian students spend their second and third terms at UNIMI; students who successfully complete the prescribed courses laid out in the joint degree agreement are awarded degrees by both universities. For further information please contact Prof. Paola Cotta Ramusino (paola.cottaramusino@unimi.it).

How to participate in Erasmus mobility programs

The students of the University of Milan can participate in mobility programmes, through a public selection procedure. Ad hoc commissions will evaluate:

- Academic career
- the candidate's proposed study programme abroad
- his/her foreign language proficiency
- the reasons behind his/her application

Call for applications and informative meetings

The public selection for Erasmus+ mobility for study generally begins around February each year with the publication of a call for applications specifying destinations and requirements. Regarding the Erasmus+ Mobility for Traineeship, the University of Milan usually publishes two calls a year enabling students to choose a destination defined by an inter-institutional agreement or to find a traineeship position on their own.

The University organizes informative meetings to illustrate mobility opportunities and rules for participation.

Erasmus+ scholarship

The European Union grants the winners of the Erasmus+ programme selection a scholarship to contribute to their mobility costs, which may be supplemented by the University funding for disadvantaged students.

Language courses

Students who pass the selections for mobility programmes can benefit from intensive foreign language courses offered each year by the University Language Centre (SLAM). https://www.unimi.it/en/node/8/

COURSE PROGRESSION REQUIREMENTS

In their first year students choose two languages and their respective cultures, which they will study for the two years of the degree course. To sit the exams of the following year (Language II or Culture II), students must have passed the exams of the preceding year (Language I or Culture I).

As regards the choice of the Culture components, note that:

1. French language students can choose between French Culture and Francophone cultures. This choice has to be made starting in the first year and adhered to for the two years of the degree course;

2. Students of English language can choose between Anglo-American Culture, Anglophone cultures and British culture . This choice has to be made starting in the first year and adhered to for the two years of the degree course;

3. Students of Spanish can choose between Spanish Culture and Cultures of Spanish-Speaking Countries. The choice must be made in the first year and maintained for the two years of the degree course.
