CARATTERISTICHE DEL CORSO DI STUDI

Obiettivi formativi generali e specifici

The Master's degree programme in Management of Human Resources (MHR) is designed to prepare students to accomplish an international career in the field of human resources. The programme extends on two years with classes, workshops, and labs to develop rigorous and relevant knowledge in this field.

It is the only two-year academic programme in Human resource management entirely taught in English that is offered in Italy. It is characterized by a comparative approach, a strong orientation toward analytics, and the adoption of a learning-by-doing teaching approach.

The programme allows students direct access to a network of practitioners, companies, and institutions to enlarge the breadth of their learning through keynotes and project works.

Along with offering the intense experience of life and learning in Milan, the MHR programme provides opportunities for internships and international mobility (i.e., Erasmus exchange programmes).

Risultati di apprendimento attesi

The MHR programme aims at providing its students with advanced and complete training in different disciplines with impacts on human resources.

Students will learn to:

- analyse and evaluate HRM policies and approaches.
- design HRM practices.
- change HRM practices by adopting advanced methodologies, analytical tools and quantitative and qualitative techniques.

MHR students will master theoretical and applied knowledge and skills in each of the following areas:

- Organization and strategic management
- Human resource management
- Organizational development
- Training and development

- Hiring and recruitment
- Employment relations
- Industrial relations
- Labour laws and regulations
- Organizational behaviour
- Human Resource Information System (HRIS)
- Digital HR and Analytics

Profilo professionale e sbocchi occupazionali

This two-year master's degree programme is designed to prepare students for a range of careers in the fields of human resource management, such as, for example, HR business partner, talent management specialist, learning and development specialist, employee experience specialist, diversity and inclusion specialist, organization development specialist, compensation and reward specialist, industrial relations specialist, people analytics specialist.

Upon graduation, students will be prepared for management positions requiring expertise in human resources, organizational behaviour, labour law, personnel economics and organizational change management.

Conoscenze per l'accesso

The programme is intended for top-level Italian and international students and it is subject to rigorous analysis of requisites for admission.

Applicants should have a bachelor's degree or equivalent; a strong interest and/or previous studies in economics, management, sociology, political sciences or related subjects; undergraduate or graduate training in mathematics and quantitative methods or a strong motivation to quickly fill their gaps in these fields; a sound knowledge of spoken and written English.

The evaluation process will consider the applicants prior academic record and its consistency with the above mentioned criteria. Admission is based on academic excellence.

Eligible candidates must meet the following requirements:

a) Applicants who have obtained their bachelor's degrees from Italian Universities are eligible for admission if they hold a 'laurea' degree pertaining to any one of the "classi di laurea" (degree classes) listed below under the heading "Note 1". Applicants who have completed their undergraduate studies at foreign universities are eligible for admission if they hold a bachelor's degree in economics, political science, or other broadly related subjects (from history to industrial engineering, from management to mathematics, from philosophy to sociology, and so on), provided that their bachelor's degree may be regarded as equivalent to one of the Italian "laurea" degrees listed below (Note 1).

b) All candidates holding a different bachelor's degree from the ones listed in Note 1 must have earned at least 9 ECTS in economics or mathematics/ statistics. The ECTS credit value of foreign applicants undergraduate studies will be assessed by the MHR admissions committee. Applicants holding an Italian bachelor's degree must have earned the required credits within the set of admissible "settori scientifico-disciplinari" (disciplinary scientific sectors) listed below under the heading "Note 2". Applicants who have completed their undergraduate studies at foreign universities should exhibit a comparable academic record or competence in logic, statistics and mathematics.

c) Proficiency in English at a B2 level or higher, under to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), is required for admission.

The B2-level requirement will be ascertained by the University Language Centre (SLAM) upon admission as follows:

- By a Bachelor's degree with English as teaching Language. The degree must be uploaded when submitting the online application.

- By a language certification at or above B2, obtained no more than 3 years earlier. For the list of language certifications recognized by the University please review: <https://www.unimi.it/en/study/language-proficiency/placement-tests-and-english-courses/accepted-language-certificates>. The certification must be uploaded when submitting the online application.

- By the English level achieved during a Bachelor's degree programme through SLAM courses and tests. The certificates must be less than four years old, and will be assessed administratively, without the applicant having to attach any certificates.

- By the entrance test, which will be delivered by SLAM. The calendar of the entrance test will be posted on the SLAM website and on the Degree Course website (<https://www.unimi.it/en/study/language-proficiency/placement-tests-and-english-courses/english-entry-tests>).

All those who fail to submit a valid certificate or do not meet the required proficiency level will be invited to take the test through the admission procedure.

Candidates who do not sit or pass the entrance test cannot sit further tests.

Candidates who do not sit or pass the entrance test will have until 31 August 2022 to obtain and submit one of the recognized certifications to the SLAM.

Students who do not meet the requirement by 31 August will not be admitted to the Master's degree programme.

d) Admission will be awarded on the basis of academic merit, coherence of their previous curriculum with the learning objectives of the Master's degree in Management of Human resources, and a test which will be assigned upon application. Applicants might be interviewed for admission.

Each applicant will have to submit, together with the application, a detailed curriculum vitae. Failing to provide the above mentioned documentation, the applicant will be excluded from the admission procedure.

Students who fail to reach level B2 will have to attend a 60-hour Italian course organised by SLAM and to pass the final test during the I semester of the second year of study in order to earn 3 ECTS credits of Additional Language Skills: Italian.

Obbligo di frequenza

Attendance is mandatory

Caratteristiche della prova finale

Having earned at least 105 credits for the learning activities included in his/her study plan, a student may be admitted to the final examination leading to the award of the Master's degree.

A total of 15 credits are reserved for the design, preparation and writing up of the Master's dissertation.

The formal assignment of these credits can only take place once the dissertation is discussed and the final examination has been passed.

The final examination consists in the submission and public discussion, before a committee, of a Master's dissertation or a Business Plan.

The Master's dissertation is an original piece of work, written by the candidate under the guidance of a supervisor.

ESPERIENZA DI STUDIO ALL'ESTERO NELL'AMBITO DEL PERCORSO FORMATIVO

The University of Milan supports international mobility by providing its students with the opportunity to spend study and internship periods abroad. It is a unique chance to enrich your educational path in an exciting new environment.

The agreements entered into by the University with over 300 universities from the 27 EU member countries under the European Erasmus+ programme allow regularly enrolled students to carry out part of their studies at one of the partner universities or to undertake internships at companies, training and research centres and other organizations.

Similar international mobility opportunities are provided outside Europe, through agreements with a number of prestigious institutions.

Cosa offre il corso di studi

The program offers the option of attending part of the program in another European country, being part of the EMLS-European Master in Labour Sciences, established in 1993 in Toulouse by 4 universities acting as founding partners.

Presently, the EMLS network (<https://www.emls-mest.eu/>) operates in 10 European countries (Germany, The Netherlands, Great Britain, Ireland, Belgium, France, Portugal, Spain, Slovenia, Italy) through 13 member universities, among the most prestigious in this field:

· London School of Economics (UK); · Universidad Autonoma de Barcelona (ES); · Universität Bremen (DE); · Université Catholique de Louvain (BE) ; · University College -Dublin (IE); · Università degli Studi di Firenze (IT); · Université de Toulouse 1 Capitole- Toulouse (FR); · Universität Trier (DE) ; · Warwick University (UK); · Universiteit van Amsterdam (NL); · Instituto Superior de Ciencias do Trabalho-ISCTE Lisboa (PT); University of Ljubljana (SL); Università degli Studi di Milano (IT)

The overall objective of the network has been to establish a joint curriculum, with a distinctive focus on Europe in order to promote a comparative approach both in research and education in the field of Labour Studies. To this end, member universities have each developed a similar, and comparable, multidisciplinary program. All member university shall:

1. Provide knowledge on the European context
2. Provide multidisciplinary training on labour studies (labour economics, labour sociology, labour psychology, labour law, labour politics, HRM)
3. Develop a European comparative approach

Modalità di partecipazione ai programmi di mobilità - mobilità Erasmus

The students at the University of Milan can participate in mobility programmes through a public selection procedure.

Ad hoc commissions will evaluate:

- Academic career
- the candidate's proposed study programme abroad
- his/her foreign language proficiency
- the reasons behind his/her application

Call for applications and informative meetings

The public selection for Erasmus+ mobility for study generally begins around February each year with the publication of a call for applications specifying destinations and requirements. Regarding the Erasmus+ Mobility for Traineeship, the University of Milan usually publishes two calls a year enabling students to choose a destination defined by an inter-institutional agreement or to find a traineeship position on their own.

The University organizes informative meetings to illustrate mobility opportunities and rules for participation.

Erasmus+ scholarship

The European Union grants the winners of the Erasmus+ programme selection a scholarship to contribute to their mobility costs, which may be supplemented by the University funding for disadvantaged students.

Language courses

Students who pass the selections for mobility programmes can benefit from intensive foreign language courses offered each year by SLAM - University of Milan Language Centre.
